Cameroon Voted African Side Of The Century

News Archive

12/31/2000. Cameroon has been named African National Side of the Century in a poll conducted by the Confederation of African Football (CAF) in Cairo.

A Superb Year For The Cameroon...(Reuters)

Cameroon won the vote based on their performance in the African Nations' Cup and the World Cup tournaments neglecting points from the Olympic Games where Cameroon won in Sydney this year and Nigeria in Atlanta in 96 with the Under-23 squad.

The country's gifted side boasts an African record of four World Cup appearances also posted a brilliant performance in the 1990 World Cup, reaching the quarter-finals and eventually losing to England in extra time.

Meanwhile, the other nine Nations behind the continent's leader Cameroon include, Nigeria, Egypt, Morocco, Algeria, Ghana, Tunisia, Democratic Republic of Congo, South Africa, and Ivory Coast.

It's been a bumper year for the country with hitman Patrick Mboma named as the African Player of the Year and the Cameroon were very well represented, fielding three other players behind the 30 year-old Parma striker
